Travel With Friends

MESSAGE FROM SUE SMITH

Program Manager

Hello Solo Friends,

Can you believe it is 2024? Where did 2023 go? It seemed to just disappear. Did you make any New Year's resolutions?

I enjoyed my Christmas cruise with my family. It is truly a fun way to spend the holidays. The ship was decorated beautifully, the crew wore their Santa hats, and everyone really enjoyed it! This was my third Christmas cruise and hopefully not my last one. I love sharing stories and time with the crew that are from all around the world.

Many of you have been busy traveling also! Life is short and I am happy that you are enjoying it to the fullest. A change of scenery gives a person a new perspective, a new way of looking at life.

Let us look forward to many new friendships and good times together this year. Hopefully, I will see you at the March meetings and on one of our Solo Exclusive trips.

Enjoy our winter, stay healthy and safe. Spring is just around the corner! See you soon!

Sue 😊

Group travel often requires a unique blend of adventuresome spirit, physical and mental alertness, and a capacity for accepting situations as they arise. AAA Group Travel understands that different people have different preferences when it comes to the pace of their travel experiences, that's why group tours were developed with a variety of activity levels to choose from.

AAA Group Travel activity levels are designed to help travelers select the pace that is right for them. Group tour activity level definitions have recently changed, please refer to the tour description on AAA.com/Group or consult with your AAA Travel Advisor for specific group tour activity level details.
