A sight to behold

The Lantern Festival can be traced back to 2,000 years ago. In the beginning of the Eastern Han Dynasty (25–220), Emperor Hanmingdi was an advocate of Buddhism. He heard that some monks lit lanterns in the temples to show respect to Buddha on the fifteenth day of the first lunar month. Therefore, he ordered that all the temples, households, and royal palaces should light lanterns on that evening. This Buddhist custom gradually became a grand festival among the people. Join AAA on this fun day trip to this exciting event. Enjoy all-new, handcrafted lanterns that illuminate when the sun sets. Walk past the 200-foot dragon and through the Tunnel of Love. The festival features daily performances (included with your admission) with Chinese acrobats, face-changers, jugglers, contortionists and dancers. Enjoy local food and drink, including cold beer and wine slushies, sold by a variety of vendors. Watch as artisans create hand artwork, toys and more – available for purchase, the perfect souvenir of your evening at the Lantern Festival.
